E.O.P.

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D.C., June 18th, 1883.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 15th instant in relation to the preparation of a general ledger, to be posted daily from the books of original entry and abstract sheets, and the abolition of a journal, I would state that I should think that the plan proposed would be an admirable one and most heartily approve of it, or any plans that you may think best for keeping your accounts. Authority is hereby given you to have the ledger prepared in your city.

I would state in this connection that we are having printed at the Govern= =ment Printing Office a form of journal=

=ledger prepared by the bookkeeper of the Mint at San Francisco. It is a very elaborate and complete system, and if you desire I will send you the printed headings for comparison or adoption, as you may think best; but I will not forward them unless you wish it.

Very respectfully,

R. E. Preston

Acting Director
